Continuation of 3. NOTE: Applicant has amended claim 1 to incorporate subject matter previously found in claim 8. However, this combination of two indepenent claims, previously rejected over two separate references (Segal and Shiota), would require the examiner to further consider the references, and their combination, to determine whether all of the limitations of newly amended claim 1 are found in the prior art. Applicant has argued that this amendment materially simplifies the issues for appeal. Examiner disagrees with this assertion, noting that if the amendment were to be entered, entirely new rejections to claims 1-7 and 9-11 would have to be applied in order for the application to proceed to appeal. Applicant's amendment has overcome the 102 rejections of claims 1-7 and 9-11, but further search and consideration is required to determine if the claims are allowable or should be rejected under new grounds.
